

Biography.

GOFFBABY (b. Switzerland) is an electronic music producer who's practice interrogates the liminal spaces between sonic aggression and atmospheric tranquility. Emerging from the free party movement in 2019, the artist's trajectory reflects a critical engagement with underground cultural formations and their subsequent institutionalization within contemporary electronic music discourse.

Goffbaby returns with an intense 4-tracks 12". After months of precision work, "Cuts & Glory" explores and redefines Goffbaby's sound through lush pads and sharp hardcore breakthroughs.

Constantly establishing himself as a promising young producer of the hardcore scene, notably with the collective and label Manareim, Goffbaby reinterprets in 4 tracks the facets of mid-90's & 00's hardcore through a wide spectrum of sounds and with a baffling ease! - Strecke Records (2021)

The m4music festival took place on March 25 and 26, 2022, in Zurich. The awards honoring the next generation of musicians were presented during the event. Artists from the French-speaking region of Switzerland were crowned.

Goffbaby received the award in the electronic category for their track "Summer Trauma." - M4Music / 20Minutes (2022)
